

ABSTRACT

Title of the thesis:

Choreography of music-movement compositions in Aerobic Team Show competition during 2004 - 2013

Objective of the thesis:

The aim of the work is to compare the movement compositions Aerobic Team Show, which took first place in the championship of the Czech Republic in the mixed category in the years 2004 - 2013.

Research methods:

The methods of analysis, comparison, systematic observation, and partly also direct observation were used to achieve the goals.

Results:

After comparing of ten movement compositions Aerobik Team Show in the years 2004 - 2013 according to established criteria, was identified data, That the criterion of interaction between athletes appear the biggest differences and variations between individual compositions, on the other side the criteria for handling equipment and motion motif are represented in compositions by similar segment.

Key words:

Aerobics , Choreography, Movement composition